AN OBJECTION

Prevents Lincoln's Birthday Bill
Passing the Senate.

Senator Hale Asked Unanimous Consent to Have It Passed.

Mr. Hawley (Rep., Ct.) Interposed an Objection on the Ground of Running to an Extreme on National Holidays—Gen. Jackson's Birthday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The birthday of Abraham Lincoln, this 12th day of February, would have been added to the list of American holidays so far as the action of the senate could go, had it not been for a single objection. A bill for that purpose which had been introduced some time ago by Mr. Mansbrough (rep., N. D.) was Wednesday reported by him from the committee on the library, and just as the senate was, on the eve of adjournment it occurred to Mr. Hale (rep., Me.) that it would be fitting and graceful thing to pass the bill Wednesday, and he asked unanimous consent to have that done. Mr. Hill (dem., N. Y.) had contemplated offering an amendment to the bill adding Jackson's birthday (the 8th of January) also to the list of national holidays; but under the peculiar circumstances he said he would withhold such amendment and offer it as a separate proposition. Then Mr. Hawley (rep., Ct.) interposed an objection on the ground that there was danger of running to an extreme on this question like some countries where there were so many saints' days that the people were seriously deprived of opportunities to work.

A bill for a memorial bridge across the Potomac from the naval observatory grounds, Washington, to the Arlington plate was taken up and passed. The urgent deficiency bill was taken up and some progress made in it. At 4.45 p. m. the senate adjourned until Thursday.

CHICAGO ALDERMEN

Assault a Police Captain and Are Arrested.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Joseph A. Lammers and Joseph F. Haas, both republican aldermen from the 15th ward, were arrested and locked up in the Harrison street station Wednesday night for fighting on the street and assaulting a police captain.

Capt. O'Neill met Lammers and Haas on the streets, and it is alleged Lammers roughly and purposely gave the police officer a jolt which came near throwing him off the sidewalk. It is said that the city official was intoxicated. Capt. O'Neill remonstrated with the gentlemen and received a blow on the nose for his trouble. A fight ensued and Lammers was getting a little the worst of it when Haas came to his assistance. The police captain called several citizens to his aid and after a general scrap succeeded in subduing the obstreperous aldermen and placing them under arrest.

Lincoln's Birthday in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The guests and members of the Republican club celebrated Wednesday night the birthday of Abraham Lincoln with a dinner at Delmonico's. Bliss, the president of the club, arrived and took the chair. The guests included U. S. Senator Foraker, Mayor Strong, Seth Low, C. M. Depew, Dr. Emil Hirsch, of Chicago; Gov. Griggs, of New Jersey; Henry E. Howland and Bishop Leonard, of Utah. Chauncey M. Depew made the principal address.

The Banquet at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Mingled with homage to the great emancipator, Abraham Lincoln, on the occasion of his 57th birthday anniversary was a great republican greeting Wednesday night to the republican leader from Ohio. More than 1,100 prominent republican citizens of this and other cities listened to praise of Lincoln and republicanism.
